

Our special DELUXE-Outing for horse-lovers and fans of king Ludwig II:

We take care particularly for the well-being of your Arabian guests due to the regulations of the Islam and will show them the beauties our home country Bavaria. Hospitality between the lakes and mountains traditionally in Bavaria is our commitment. King Ludwig II already dreamed of a connection of Orient and Okcident and a peaceful, art and music loving world. We invite your guests, to experience this connection in the Royal castles of Neuschwanstein and Linderhof. Even Germany's most famous poet, Johan Woilfgang von Goethe, who had studied the Koran, said: "..... Orient and Okcident are no longer to separate."

Our travelling program:

- 10.00h Meeting our guests in your hotel in Munich. Transfer to the famous Church-in-the-Field, snack.
- 12.00h Departure of the historic mail-coach, pulled by four noble horses, ride via the green mountain pastures with grazing cattle and horses, through dense forests, between the lakes Forggensee and Bannwaldsee, always in view the backdrop the mountains.
- 16.00h Arrival of the mail-coach at the castles. 1 hour time to relax, to take a coffee, prayer in the reserved day room of the hotel. especially for Arabian guests, later a transfer to an individual visit of the castle of Neuschwanstein, outside of the stream of tourism with a guided tour in English or German language.
- 19.00h dinner in the romantic restaurant
- ca. 21.00h transfer by van back to Munich to your hotel (optional: overnight stay in Hohenschwangau at a surplus)

Rates include: transfer from and to Munich, ride on a four-in-hand mail coach, visit of the castle of Neuschwanstein, dinner in the romantic restaurant (Minimum participants: 6 persons) EUR 680,00 inkl. V.A.T.
